Course Description	The "Korean Language and Creative Dance Workshop" is an innovative program designed to combine learning the Korean language with exploring creative dance, with a focus on Korean themes and cultural motifs. This unique course enables participants to immerse themselves in Korean and use it as a medium to explore and express artistic ideas through movement. In a collaborative and interactive learning environment, students will delve into various Korean subjects to set themes, which will then be translated into expressive dance movements, embodying the essence of the chosen themes. The course aims to foster a deep understanding of Korean culture and language while encouraging creative expression and physical embodiment of ideas through dance.
Course Objective	The program has three goals: language and cultural immersion, creative exploration and expression, and theme development and embodiment. Students will improve their Korean language proficiency while immersed in Korean culture. They will learn creative dance techniques and develop original choreography inspired by Korean themes. They will also learn how to translate Korean motifs into meaningful dance movements.
